

SBD UPDATES & ADMINISTRATION

At the October public meeting, new officers were elected for the District to start with the new year 2024. Stephanie Brown will be the new president of the Board of Commissioners, while Bobbie Butterly remains the treasurer for the board. There will be an opening for a property owner on the board starting January 1st- if you are interested in applying, please visit the website for the application and reach out to Park Central Development with any questions.

Park Central Development administers the SBD. If you would like to reach out to PCD, you can contact David Wright (david@pcd-stl.org) and he will be happy to communicate with you.

PROJECT UPDATES

Partnership with NSI:

The Central West End Neighborhood Security Initiative (NSI) is a crucial partner in safety and security in the District. In addition to coordinating District patrols and managing security cameras, NSI participates in social service outreach.

Local Involvement:

AlderLady Shameem Clark-Hubbard is aware of the District's work and recently introduced a board bill to create a 3-way stop sign at Pershing and Clara.

Waterman Lighting Project:

The District continues to work with ABNA to satisfy requirements for installation of pedestrian lighting in the District, with the project going to bid through the City soon.

MEETING SCHEDULE

Taking place at the Forest Park Visitor Center
